

Kentucky Teacher of the Year Program
A Joint Program of KAAE and Kentucky FFA Foundation
Sponsored By Whyne Supply Company

Name
Home Address
School
School Address
Cell Number
Email Address
Name(s) of Co-Teachers

Non-duplicated Enrollment		FFA Membership
of Students In Your High School

Your application must be typed, in no smaller than 12 point font, and include the following:

1. Overview- brief description of your program and community- limited to one page (25 points)
 - a. Community information- population, rural/urban, type of agriculture, etc
 - b. Program information- number and type of students, courses and pathways offered, special things about program
 - c. Vision for Ag Program

2. Teaching Philosophy- limited to one page (25 points)
 - a. Why and how you teach
 - b. How you help all students achieve at high levels
 - c. Innovative teaching practices
 - d. Integration of FFA and SAE
 - e. Community Partnerships
 - f. Marketing of the Program (including students from diverse backgrounds, non-farm backgrounds, and special populations)

3. Supporting Materials- limited to 4 pages. This may include photos, news articles, etc. (25 points)

4. Letters of Reference- three letters of reference should be included- one from an administrator, one from region chair of the KAAE, and one from a community member, one from a former student who was in the teacher's classes and FFA . (graduated no longer than 5 years) (25 points)

All application materials should be neatly bound in a folder and submitted to Matt Chaliff by the deadline. (Please do NOT use page protectors.) All region winners earn $200 gift cards, state winner earns $1000