

Dairy Holders CDE

Event Rules

All members participating in this Career Development Event must meet the eligibility requirements and adhere to the rules of the Kentucky FFA Association as outlined in the Rules Governing FFA Activities document.

Each chapter is limited to two (2) members in this event. A total of twenty four (24) dairy holders will be able to compete and will be registered on a first come, first served basis. If less than twenty four students register for this event, chapters will have the opportunity to enter additional students.

Official Dress Appropriate: No

Regional Event: None

State Event: Kentucky State Fair

DRESS

It is not a requirement that students wear “dairy whites” for this event.

Students must wear close toed shoes (preferably boots) to participate in this event.

DAIRY HOLDERS EVENT

Twenty four (24) members will have the opportunity to participate in this event.

Only members who have the ability to properly control and present a dairy animal should be registered for this event.

An instructional clinic for all participants will be held prior to the Dairy Judging CDE.

Participants will exhibit one dairy animal during the Dairy Judging CDE. If less than twenty four students sign up for this event, some students may exhibit more than one animal, however they will only be scored on one animal.

No members who are showing dairy cattle during the Kentucky State Fair are eligible to participate in this event.

Dairy Holders CDE

Scoring

The following will be considered in scoring dairy holders:

1. Appearance of the holders
2. Control of animals by holders
3. Poise and calmness of holders
4. Skill in showing including:
 - a. Continuous attention while showing
 - b. Keeping animal placed to an advantage
 - c. Ability to stand animal
 - d. Ability to move animal

The top twelve (12) show persons will be identified and awarded. Additionally, the top three (3) show persons will be identified.

