

Kentucky FFA Essay Contest

2024-2025 Topic

Background: Between 2002 and 2022, Kentucky lost over 1.4 million acres of farmland to various forms of development including industrial, residential, and recreational uses. This land is forever lost for the production of food and fiber.

Prompt: What steps can the Kentucky agriculture industry take to slow or stop the loss of farmland for other uses?

