STATE SELECTION – PERSONAL INTERVIEW

The purpose of the interview is to determine the accuracy of information included in the degree application and the participant's involvement in and knowledge of the program.

Interviews will be conducted by a committee during the state FFA convention. For each Star area, six current and/or former teachers of agriculture will be invited to serve on each committee along with five representatives from the agriculture industry.

Members of the Interview Committee will score the participants using the official rubric. Interview scores will be turned in to the Executive Secretary.

If a student does not participate in interviews, he/she will not be recognized on stage and will not receive premium money.

TALLYING OF SCORES

The Executive Secretary will tally the scores from the applications and the interview and add these together. The application score will count for 60% of the total score and the interview will count for 40% of the total score.

Ties will be broken using the tied participants' interview scores. If a tie still exists, it will be broken based on the tied participants' overall scores on Section I of the application. If a tie still exists it will be broken based on the participants' score for the Knowledge section of the interview.
