

Kentucky Master Agriculture Teacher

Developing dynamic professionals in Agricultural Education

The Kentucky Master Agriculture Teacher (KMAT) Program is a 2-year professional development for teachers who have completed at least 5 years of teaching experience. KMAT participants will receive training and resources centered around 4 core principles:

Authentic Leadership

Student-Focused Educator

Advocacy with Purpose

Growth By Mentorship