

Middle School Contest Finals

In order to provide a better experience for FFA members and to ensure for a fair selection process, preliminaries and finals shall be held in the following events provided that a certain number of teams/individuals are registered to participate.

Prepared Public Speaking- 16 or more

Extemporaneous Speaking- 16 or more

Opening and Closing Ceremonies- 12 or more

Discussion Meet- 12 or more

Procedures

Teams/individuals will be randomly assigned to a preliminary round. Efforts will be made to ensure an equal number of participants in each preliminary round.

Two teams/individuals will be selected by the judges in each preliminary round to advance to the final round. These will be announced and/or posted outside the room.

The four finalists will compete at a designated time in front of finals judges.

The top four in each event will be named and recognized on stage.

Quiz Bowl

All teams will compete in the written exam component.

The top eight teams from the written exam will compete in the quick recall round.

The top eight teams will be seeded for the final round based on written exam scores.

