Welcome to the 97th Annual Kentucky FFA State Convention!

Kentucky FFA members, guests, and advisors, welcome to Lexington for the 97th Kentucky FFA State Convention. Each of us has the ability to make an impact on the agriculture industry and the world around us. When we use our talents and time to serve others, we open the door to greater impact, personal growth, and meaningful connections.

Throughout this convention, and even after we leave Lexington, we hope you feel inspired and confident, knowing that you are truly Bound for More!

Leadership Workshops

Sponsored by Farm Credit Mid-America

TUESDAY, JUNE 9

Find Your Place in Ag

Presented by Teach Ag Ambassadors

11:00 AM & 1:00 PM, Ballroom A, HLD

Bound for More: Where are you now and where are you headed? Could a career in Agricultural Education be the right path for you? Take a journey with us to discover where your future is headed and how to prepare along the way!

The Power of One Voice

Presented by Kentucky Farm Bureau

11:00 AM & 1:00 PM, Ballroom B, HLD

This fast-moving, interactive session gives you the chance to jump into agriculture advocacy challenges through crafting messages, sharing personal ag stories, and testing how your voice can shape the future of agriculture and rural communities.

Bound for Impact KDA x FFA

*Presented by Kentucky
Department of Agriculture*

11:00 AM & 1:00 PM, Ballroom C, HLD

KENTUCKY
AGRICULTURE

Equipping FFA members with the knowledge, leadership, and voice to champion agriculture education in their communities.

Lights, Camera, Network: Building Your Network Through Communication

Presented by Mary Brooke Stith

11:00 AM & 1:00 PM, Ballroom D, HLD

Effective leaders know that success is built on strong relationships. Just like any great movie production depends on the right cast, this workshop highlights the importance of communication and networking in creating meaningful connections. Members will gain a deeper understanding of how to present themselves, engage with others, and build a network that contributes to long-term success.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10

Growing Solutions for the Future of Agriculture

Presented by Farm Credit

Mid-America

11:00 AM & 1:00 PM, Room 5, CBC

An interactive workshop designed to empower young leaders to solve challenges facing the future of agriculture. You'll explore the impact of agriculture in Kentucky, reflect on existing roadblocks to your local agriculture community, and exercise your innovator mindset in an agricultural themed solving session. You'll leave the workshop with a renewed sense of purpose rooted in sustaining the future of agriculture

Simple is Significant

Presented by Lilly Nyland, National FFA Secretary

10:00 AM, 11:00 AM & 1:00 PM, Room 6, CBC

Some of the most significant moments are often the simplest ones. In this workshop, we will explore the power of small moments and learn how intentional actions can turn them into meaningful, lasting impact.

Financial Wisdom. Flourishing Lives.

Presented by First Southern

National Bank

11:00 AM & 1:00 PM, Room 7, CBC

We'll discuss what it means to have margin in your home and creating a legacy for your family that can impact the world.

Are You Ready to Teach? Exploring Agricultural Education Through Action

Presented by Teach Ag

11:00 AM & 1:00 PM, Room 8, CBC

Participants in this workshop will understand what agricultural education looks like beyond the classroom and practice using basic teaching skills in a fun, interactive way.

THANK A FARMER

Advocating for farmers, because they bring more to the table than food.

Since 1919, Kentucky Farm Bureau has stood beside the farm families and rural communities that sustain the Commonwealth. These men and women are the backbone of our economy, our traditions, and our way of life. We continue to ensure the challenges facing Kentucky agriculture are heard and addressed by decision-makers in Frankfort and Washington, D.C.
